

Obama vs. McCain Irrelevant Author Charges

2008-10-28

By Jeff Gates

Obama vs McCain Irrelevant Author Charges

For Immediate Release:

(WASHINGTON, D.C.) As John McCain and Barack Obama finish up their presidential campaigns, a former Capitol Hill insider is releasing an account that charges the outcome is irrelevant based on issues that matter most to the nation's prospects for peace and prosperity.

In Guilt by Association: How Deception and Self-Deceit Took America to War, Jeff Gates, former counsel to the U.S. Senate, chronicles the influence that Israel exerts over the candidates. Both McCain and Obama, Gates charges, are unwitting "assets" of an agenda pursued by Tel Aviv.

"Explosively revealing" concedes a former U.S. envoy to Baghdad.

"Stunningly provocative" says a former U.S. Ambassador to Qatar.

"Breathless just reading it," reports M.I.T. Professor Noam Chomsky.

Cautioning voters not to expect real change absent a change in U.S.-Israeli relations, Guilt chronicles how pro-Israelis deceived the U.S. to wage war in Iraq in pursuit of goals crafted in Tel Aviv. The Zionist state's agenda both endangered and discredited the U.S., Gates claims, by making it appear guilty by its association with Israel's expansionist goals for region.

The author promises to "make treason transparent" by revealing how warfare is waged in the Information Age with the help of a cooperative media. Gates then documents how facts are displaced with what people can be deceived to believe. Those false beliefs, he claims, range from a manufactured belief in Iraqi WMD and mobile biological weapons laboratories to faith in the infallibility of unfettered financial markets.

This explosive analysis accuses both political parties of offering voters only the appearance of choice while catering to Tel Aviv. The promise of change, Gates argues, makes the 2008 election a fraud on the public when both candidates are committed to a pro-Israeli agenda that, he insists, is closely linked to transnational organized crime

An acclaimed author, attorney, investment banker, educator and consultant to government, corporate and labor leaders worldwide, Gates' previous works include Democracy at Risk: Rescuing Main Street From Wall Street and The Ownership Solution: Toward a Shared Capitalism for the 21st Century. Endorsers for these books include CEOs, heads of state, legislators, educators, commentators and Nobel laureates.

This book is available now. For more information, or to order, go to www.criminalstate.com.

Guilt by Association: How Deception and Self-Deceit Took America to War is poised to become the first in a best-selling Criminal State series. (ISBN: 978-0-9821315-0-3; $27.95; 320 pages; 5½" x 8½"; perfect bound soft cover; State Street Publications).